

Your Weekender

Bringing the weekend to your door!

Serving the greater
Platteville area each week.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY, & SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19, 20 & 21, 2005

A publication of the Shipping News

She's Singing Your Song!

Photo by Jeff Stiles
A local singer/songwriter releases a new Christmas CD and helps to spread holiday cheer throughout the tri-state. Page 3

(continued on page 4)

ing in concert in downtown Dubuque at the Grape Harbor, which she describes as a "classy yet fun" wine store.

"I love the Grape Harbor, and I think it's a wonderful and warm place because wine is such a warm thing," says Rosalie. "People who are involved in that type of setting are warm people who just want to have a good time and share stories and congregate, and I feel very at home at the Grape Harbor."

It will be a natural fit for a singer/songwriter who loves to sing about friendships and emotions, and who always performs with a bright smile that cheers those around her.

"The beauty of music is that someone can listen to a song and make it solely their own," says Rosalie. "People can interpret a song however it touches them, simply by listening to someone else's words and relating to them."

"I want to stay right here in Platteville, Wisconsin, writing music and sharing it with anybody and everybody, because to me that's what it's all about. It's not about the fame. It's about enjoying the music, and sharing my feelings!"

Photo by Jeff Stiles

When Rosalie writes and performs her songs, she says she hopes her audiences will be touched on a personal level.